Chapter 1

2008 January

1.1 Saturday, January 19

1. US Housing Crash Continues. [33]

1.2 Saturday, January 26

1. An Anarchist FAQ Webpage. Version 12.1. [1]

Who'd have thought that anarchists & a socialist¹ would agree? In particular, I enjoyed Section C - What are the myths of capitalist economics?.

¹The socialist would be me.

Chapter 2

2008 February

2.0.1 Monday, February 11

1. a rant by “mimus” about the 2008 Democratic candidates in the 2008 presidential election.

2.1 Saturday, February 16

1. “Where Friedman Went Wrong”. By Antal E. Fekete. 2006 November. [12]

I read Fekete’s essay for the first time in 2007 September. It’s excellent. Also, if it really was written before 2006 November, then his prediction of a “credit collapse” was remarkable.

He discusses more than the predicted credit collapse. He also discusses Milton Friedman’s concept of floating currency, problems with that concept, credit, self-liquidating credit & how it was used for payrolls. Fascinating & educational.

2. “Some Microsoft Office File Formats Join Open Specs”. By Elizabeth Montalbano. 2008 February 16. [30]
3. “Amazon’s cloud storage hiccups”. 2008 February 15. [41]
4. “Phone viruses to spread as telecom, computer worlds merge, say experts”. By Adam Plowright. 2008 February 16. [34]

2.2 Sunday, February 17

1. “Iran-backed groups using secret arms stores: U.S.”. By Mohammed Abbas. 2008 February 17. [2]

I remember hearing that the U.S. military declined to clean up lots of weapons stashes after invading Iraq. Could Shi'ite militias be using these, instead of newly imported weapons financed by Iran? If so, the claim of "Iran-backed" weapons is just more war-making on the part of the United States, a further claim in the US's attempt to do whatever it can to make the public approve of invading Iran.

2. "Old JFK documents may stir controversy". 2008 February 17. [53]
3. "USDA orders nation's largest beef recall". 2008 February 17. [36]
4. "California packer makes largest U.S. beef recall". By Abbott and Doering. 2008 February 17. [3]

2.3 Monday, February 18

1. What the Hell is a "Liberal Fascist?" [14]. By grassroots.. Monday, 2008 February 18.

2.4 Tuesday, February 19

1. Court orders whistle-blower site offline in U.S. [29]. By Elizabeth Montalbano.. Tuesday, 2008 February 19.

2.5 Wednesday, February 20

2.5.1 Cuban embargo

Some people are asking President Bush to lift the embargo against Cuba. Also, Bush says that he won't lift the embargo.

1. The Cuba embargo stays: Bush [39]. By Richard Sisk.. 2008 February 20.
2. White House rejects calls for an end to embargo [13]. By Suzanne Goldberg.. 2008 February 20.

Some people, plus Bush, forget that the embargo is a law, enacted by Congress in 1962, & the president has little to say about it. Congress may lift the embargo, but the president cannot.

From what [13] says, it sounds like even 100 members of Congress have forgotten that they, not the president, make the laws.

2008 March

3.1 Monday, March 3

1. “Why the bosses system can’t sort it out¹”. By Andrew Blackmore.

Enjoyable 30,000-foot overview of Marxism, complete with a couple of connections to historic events which occurred in my life-time.

- Netflix down for at least five hours

Somewhat interesting, but it’s almost a sales ad for some scripting product.
3. “Senate Considers Striking Down ‘Common Carrier’ Exception”. By Richard Martin. At Yahoo! News. [26]
Sounds like a good idea at first, but hasn’t the FTC unleashed privatization & free markets on the resources under its protection in the past decade? If so, submitting wireless carriers to the FTC could be a step towards deregulation, & if we have a problem now, we’ll have a worse problem then.

Chapter 9

2008 September

9.1 Monday, September 22

- Gary Sudborough. “Capitalism, Fascism and World War 2”. local copy, retrieved 2008 September 22.

Short & sweet. The (unwritten) implications of his hypothesis about WW2 are astounding but believable. It would explain a lot.

- Anonymous. “Giuliani: Chavez a danger to America. Or is he really a danger to exploitative capitalism?”. local copy, retrieved 2008 September 22.

- As I receive my 1st
3rd beating in October,
I remember police brutality
Fondly.

“Brigade homeland tours start Oct. 1”. local copy retrieved 2008 September 22.

From the news story: “They may be called upon to help with civil unrest and crowd control”.

I’ve said it before, though not very often (& not here): In my lifetime, USA will be a police state, with military personnel performing the duties of police.

9.2 Thursday, September 25

- Richard Shinnick. “New Models Show $700 Billion In Credit Losses“ at seekingalpha.com. (local copy, retrieved 2008 Sep 25)

Mr. Shinnick estimated a bail-out of 700 billion USD way back in January. (I did not verify that the essay is as old as it claims.)

9.3 Friday, September 26

- “Bush and Reid Offer Assurances on Bailout Talks”. By Stolberg, Herszenhorn and Hulse. [38]

The important part of that news story is “Thursday’s agreement, which seemed like a sure thing by early afternoon, fell apart during a meeting later in the day at the White House after House Republicans rejected the plan brokered by the Treasury secretary, Henry M. Paulson Jr.”.

Thank the gods for small favors. We’re safe from the next stage of pilaging for one more day.
